STATE ITEMS.

There will be a Democratic barbecue and "big drunk" at Scio on the 26th inst.

Large quantities of wheat are now being received at Albany. The price paid is 70 cents.

Hon. F. A Chenoweth will deliver the annual address before the Linn County Agricultural Society.

The Teachers' Association of Douglas county will be held at Roseburg on the 9th and 10th October.

The Register says the west side railroad Company propose to build a bridge at Albany to connect that town with their line.

The road from Linn county to Ochoco valley is obstructed by fallen timber. There have been tremendous fires in the mountains in that direction.

The Corvallis paper says: "J. C. Wells, of this city, left at our office, a few days since, an Indian dart or arrow-head, which he found about fifteen feet below the surface of the earth, and below a stratum of sandstone several feet in thickness. The question is "how came it there?"

The Corvallis Gazette says: "A number of valuable horses have recently died in the neighborhood of Eugene City from a singular fatal disease, which has hitherto baffled the skill of the best farriers. The seat of the disease appears to be in the head and kidneys. The horse, however high in life and flesh, immediately begins to droop, and death soon follows.

Last Friday night at Eugene City a man named McVay was shot by a man named Delaney. The ball entered the right breast and lodged against the shoulder blade. It is thought the wounded man will recover. Delaney had his horse in the stable where McVay was employed; and when he started to go away the latter asked him for his bill, when he fired with the effect described. He was arrested.

OWYHEE.

The Lincoln mill, working Ida Elmore ore, cleaned up last week $68,187 in bullion, the product of one run. The precious metal was moulded into bricks, one of which is valued at 22,157 39, which the Avalanche says is the most valuable single brick ever produced by a quartz mine.

A man named Hoyt was robbed some days ago of $400 at Wood's house, on the summit, between Jordon and Reynolds' creeks.

A shooting row occurred at a saloon in Silver City, on the 7th inst., between two parties, in which eight or ten shots were fired at short range, without particular damage to anybody.

The Avalanche of the 12th says: This week a large and rich quartz vein was discovered in the gulch south of the Pauper mine. Fult Haight, Hi Gheer and Coggswell are the lucky finders. We visited the discovery on Wednesday and found the quartz to be fully five feet in width, with regular and well defined casings. A considerable portion of the quartz is decomposed and contains large quantities of both gold and silver.

Miscellaneous Notes.

The Toronto (Canada) Globe understands the political situation in the United States. It says: "The infatuation of the Democrats in putting forward such men as Wade Hampton as their representatives in the Presidential contest seems almost to amount to lunacy. These men 'accept the situation' simply while they cannot do better, and not an hour longer."

A Chinese almanac is a most extraordinary publication. The days for plowing, building, traveling and marrying are laid down in it with the greatest minuteness. The whole period of four seasons is divided into twenty four solar terms, each possessing a characteristic name and corresponding to the day on which the sun covers the first or fifteenth degree of one of the twelve signs of the zodiac. As the Chinese is a lunar calendar, the places of the solstices, equinoxes, etc., which regulate the great festival of the year, are changed every year. There is also the intercalculation of the arrears of the Chinese year of 354 days, which in a period of thirty two or thirty-three months, amounts to a great month of thirty days, which is introduced every two or three years in such a way as to preserve the order of these twenty-four periods.

The Westminister Review says: "The Americans are, at the present moment, substantially engaged in a conflict which we as Englishmen carried on for many generations. When we boast of our liberties, we make them to repose on the ultimate and final victory which the legislative power has at last gained over the Executive. To speak of the Northern Americans as tyrannizing over the Southern in a spirit of revenge, is at once to show that the heat of a particular conflict is mistaken for the general tone of feeling. No defeated party was ever offered milder or more just terms of reconciliation than were proffered to the South at the termination of the war. If the Republican party have committed any excesses, they have been driven to them by the President. The blows that have fallen on the South have been invited by him and forced in self-defense on men who approached their enemies with an open hand."

The Campaign.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 2.—The Republican illumination and torchlight procession to-night was the grand feature of the demonstration, and exceeds anything ever witnessed in the city. The procession, composed of Fighting Boys in Blue, Grant Guards and Tanners in uniform, was fully two miles in length, and occupied almost one hour in passing a given point. Not less than sixty thousand persons were on the streets during the march.

PANA, Ill., Sept. 2.—General Palmer addressed an immense and enthusiastic crowd of many thousands here this evening, in the open air, from a stand erected for the occasion. Men, women and children came pouring in multitudes from the country, notwithstanding the busy times of farmers, all eager to hear the patriotic statesman and next Governor of Illinois. During the speaking a large delegation, numbering several hundred, in which there was a company of Tanners, headed by a brass band, arrived from Assumption, which was greeted with three rousing cheers. Great enthusiasm was manifested.

MATTOON, Ill., Sept. 2.—We had the grandest meeting at Charleston, last night, of the campaign. A special train of ten cars, full of Republicans, went from here. There were 1,965 Tanners in the torchlight procession.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Sept. 2.—The Republican demonstration here to-day was the largest and most enthusiastic held in Central Illinois during the campaign. Large delegations of Tanners and Loyal Boys in Blue came in from the country during the afternoon in wagons, and on horseback, with flags and banners bearing various devices.

Ten thousand people took part in the demonstration. The Republicans of Morgan county are making a splendid fight, and the greatest confidence prevails among them that they will carry the county at the election in November by a handsome majority.

Judge Ransom Balcom, of the New York Supreme Court, has written a letter, addressed to a Republican club in Unadilla, strong endorsing the nomination of Grant and Colfax. After saying that he has taken no part in political discussions since he was appointed a judge in 1855, he says: "In my judgment it is as necessary for the peace and prosperity of the people, the protection of Union men in the Southern States, the credit of the Government and the preservation of the Union that General Grant should be elected President of the United States, as it was for the Union army to defeat the Confederate forces and crushing the rebellion.

The Democratic papers declare that "Blair says what he means." What does he mean when he says: "'er cons ush'n mus' be persur'd?"—Albany Journal.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL.

SALEM, Saturday, Sept. 20, 1868.

Neither of the two houses of the Legislature being in session to-day, I have leisure to write concerning a few matters about town. The crowd attendant upon the opening of the session has greatly thinned out, though there are still here a good many lobbyists, anxious about various schemes public and private. The hotels are no longer overcrowded and there is less difficulty about getting private boarding places. In addition to the "Capital" and a half dozen or so of smaller hotels, the old Bennett House was last week re opened by W. C. Nevil & Bro., and is now fitted up in very good style and is capable of accommodating a large number of guests. The hotels of Salem are, generally, an improvement upon those of two or four years ago.

A SHOOTING AFFAIR.

We had a very fair proportioned sensation here last night—a shooting affair at the hurdy gurdy house. The man who is or was proprietor is suspected of being one of the burglars who broke into Vanduyn & Somerville's store at Independence last Tuesday night. A couple of men armed with a warrant for his arrest had followed him and another man to Hillsborough and had attempted his arrest there. He escaped, however, and came back here. About twelve o'clock, the men who were on the watch saw him enter the rear door of the saloon, and they immediately disposed themselves to effect his arrest. While one or two kept guard at the rear door, others went in at the front. The moment, however, that he was found, in a rear room, he fired at the party and ran out a rear door and escaped, though several shots were fired after him. About two o'clock he was seen to go in again and a similar scene was enacted, the man again escaping. This morning, it was ascertained that he was at one of the hotels at North Salem, in bed. Sheriff Murphy went down, found in which room he was, bursted open the door and caught him in bed. He had no time to use his pistol and seeing that the sheriff had the drop on him, he surrendered gracefully and was taken to jail. His name is Charles Sutton, and I think came from Portland. There seems to be no positive proof of his complicity in the burglary, though there is strong circumstantial evidence.

PENITENTIARY.

Since the beginning of the session, many of the members have visited this institution—some from curiosity, others no doubt to find fault. The universal testimony, however, is that the grounds, buildings and everything else is in tip top order: and that the Penitentiary was never before managed with anything like the system and advantage to the State as since Maj. Berry assumed control. The convicts are turning out large numbers of bricks and the institution is constantly approaching the condition of self sustaining.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD DECISION.

The Supreme Court to-day made an important decision, dismissing the appeal taken, in the case of the State of Oregon ex relatione J. Gaston—appellant—vs. the Oregon Central Railroad Company (East Side). The facts of the case are these: On the 5th of June last, Mr. Gaston filed two affidavits before Chief Justice Boise, of this State, alleging facts which he claimed were sufficient to authorize an action in the nature of quo warranto, to set aside their corporate existence, and upon which affidavits the Prosecuting Attorney of the Third Judicial District moved for leave to commence such action. It being made to appear, however, that an action of similar character was then pending before Judge Upton, of the Fourth District Court, Judge Boise declined to entertain the application until that case was determined. On the 27th of June, Gaston in the mean time having dismissed the action pending before Judge Upton, the application was renewed before Judge Boise, who was then holding a regular term of Court in this city, for leave to commence the action of quo warranto upon the motion and application previously filed. After full argument the motion was denied, Judge Boise holding that, even admitting all to be true that appeared in the affidavits of Mr. Gaston, there was still not sufficient reason shown why an action should be commenced against the East Side Company, and judgment for costs was rendered against Gaston. From this decision, of Judge Boise refusing to permit an action to be commenced, an appeal was taken, ostensibly by the State of Oregon, but really by Mr. Gaston. This appeal the attorney for the Oregon Central moved to dismiss, upon the reasons that the Court had no jurisdiction of the case. This motion was sustained by the Supreme Court, the opinion being delivered by Justice Wilson. The Court held that the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court was confined solely to the office of revising the final decisions of the Circuit Courts; that the order of the Judge of the Court below was one resting on the sound discretion of the Judge, and that it was not a final order of the Circuit Court—and therefore was not such judgment or decree, from which an appeal could be taken.

The effect of this decision is to affirm the judgment of Chief Justice Boise in refusing to allow an action to be maintained against the East Side Company. It is to be hoped this will be the end of litigations in regard to this matter. The interests of our State should not at this critical period be jeopardized by useless litigation.

I am informed that Ben. Holliday & Co. have been recognized by the East Side Company as the successors in the contracts of A. J. Cook & Co.—the first contract being for 150 miles commencing at Portland and running south of Eugene City, to near Yoncalla; the other contract being for an extension of the line southerly through Douglas and Jackson counties, to the California line. Ben. Holladay arrived in town to-day, and railroad matters have been quite a general theme of remark. The company has fitted up an extensive suit of rooms in McCully's block, where officers, contractors, agents, etc., make their headquarters.

AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The following are the essential features of the bill introduced by Senator Miller to provide for a convention to revise the Constitution:

An election for delegates to a convention to revise the Constitution, shall be held at the usual places of voting in this State on the —— day of November, 1868.

It shall be the duty of the delegates elected under the provisions of this Act to meet at the seat of government on Monday, the —— day of September, 1869, and proceed to form a revised State Constitution.

The revised Constitution herein provided for, before taking effect, shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State for acceptance or rejection, at the general election to be held in June, 1870, at which time officers provided for in the revised Constitution, and not provided for in the present Constitution, shall be elected: provided, that if of the votes so cast, a majority shall be found against the revised Constitution, the election of officers under such Constitution shall be null and of no effect.

Within twenty days after the vote shall be canvassed in the manner aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to make out an abstract of the vote from the several counties, for and against the Constitution, together with a certificate of the final result of the whole vote, and cause the same to be published in the several newspapers in the State, and if from the abstract and certificate, it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of the revised Constitution, the Governor shall within twenty days after the publication aforesaid, proclaim the adoption of the said Constitution; and the officers elected under the same shall assume their duties within the time and in the manner provided for in the new Constitution

Each county shall be entitled to delegates to the Convention herein provided for, as follows:

Baker, two; Benton, three; Columbia, Clatsop and Tillamook, two; Coos, Curry and Douglas, six; Clackamas, four; Grant, three; Jackson, four; Josephine, 2; Lane, five; Linn, nine; Marion, nine; Multnomah, six; Polk, four; Umatilla, three; Union, two; Union and Baker, one; Washington, three; Wasco, three; Yamhill, three.

The delegates to such Convention shall be allowed the same pay that members of the Legislative Assembly are allowed

The Issues Clearly Stated

The results to which Wade Hampton's rebel programme (which the New York Convention adopted) would lead [illegible] by no one more clearly than by ex-Senator Carlile, of West Virginia, who [illegible] Democrat, repudiates Seymour and [illegible] Grant. We have already published this letter, but some of its passages are so striking and powerful that we cannot do better than to reproduce them. Mr Carlile says

> If the governments created by the constitutions of the Southern States, under the laws of Congress, are nullities and have no legal existence, the governments created under Executive dictation must share the same fate, and these States will be remitted back to the governments created by the constitutions adopted by each after the passage of their several ordinances of secession and the repudiation of their allegiance to the Constitution of the United States. In this situation, with Seymour, who thinks with the late President Buchanan, that the Government of the United States cannot use force against the people of a sovereign State to compel obedience to its lawful authority, will not disunion be a fact accomplished, and will not the war have been fought in vain?

Could there be any clearer or more [illegible] statement than this? The rebels [illegible] that under the Democratic programme the State governments which they had during the war will be restored, and we have now before us a long argument from the New Orleans Picayune to show that this will follow as a result of the election of Seymour and Blair. It is clear that the Democratic programme contemplates the revival of the rebel State governments which were put down by loyal soldiers in 1865. Chief Justice Pearson of North Carolina presents the case in the same light as Mr Carlile. It says

> The New York Democratic Convention declares our State Government a mere creation of usurpation, and of course not entitled to the allegiance of the people, and it proclaims the reconstruction acts of Congress "unconstitutional, revolutionary and void," omitting the word null lest it might call up unpleasant recollections of the fate of nullification, when the strong will of Jackson prevented war. If the reconstruction acts are void, so are the reconstruction measures of President Johnson, and the negroes are still slaves. This leads to war

There can be no question but that the negroes are still slaves if, as the Democratic party asserts, the rebel State governments are still valid and the present governments are unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. The issues of this campaign are such that there can be no such thing as misunderstanding them.

Democratic Philosophy

The Democratic comment on the elections which have so far been reported is,—"The Dutch have taken Holland." The New York World said the Democrats allowed Vermont "to go by default," and the result could not be considered indicative of the sentiment of the country. But before the election the World claimed that the Dutch would have much more difficulty, and meet with greater loss in taking Holland this year than usual, and three days before the election argued the matter in this way

> Though it is not to be expected of the [illegible] era of the Constitution in Vermont that they will give anything like a numerical triumph next Tuesday, we do reckon with great confidence on such handsome gains for them as will serve for an index of the final result when the country votes in a body in November. The result in Vermont will certify to the positiveness of the reaction that is going on throughout the Union against the revolutionary course of the faction that has attained supreme power. There is a great deal more virtue in the example of a reduced opposition majority, as in the case of Vermont, than in a positive victory in a State where victories over Radicalism are regular matters

So the Boston Post, the leading Democratic paper in New England, said a few days before the Vermont election that "the result in that State will establish the fact of the tendency everywhere else." Now let us take the Democratic organs at their word, confirmed as it is by the more recent splendid triumph in Maine. These victories are not to be explained away with a sneer after the manner in which the Copperheads are trying to dispose of them. The words of the World were true when it said that the result there would serve for an index of the final result when the country votes in a body in November. The addition of thousands to the Republican majority in each of these States has a deep and mighty meaning. Democrats will understand it in a few weeks from this time.

Pendleton's Alarm

Not long ago Pendleton was down in New England telling the people that everybody "out West" was in favor of his plan of repudiation. But he was summoned home in haste by the Ohio Democrats, who discovered that the tide was rising against them with a rush. He had also a large number of appointments in Illinois, concerning which, on reaching home, he telegraphed as follows:

> "CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept 1, 1868
> To Hon. John A. McClernand:
> Just arrived at home. The [illegible] conquer in Ohio requires me to withdraw all my appointments in Illinois.
> GEO. H. PENDLETON"

The result of the visit of the "great statesman of the Northwest" to New England is witnessed in the result in Vermont and Maine. On being called hurriedly home he finds that it is going so badly with his party in his own State, that he abandons Illinois and Indiana and devotes himself to saving the fragments in Ohio. The Chicago Tribune remarks that "the strategist who published Pendleton's dispatch is the same illustrious man who claims that his brains furnished Grant with the plan for taking Vicksburg."

The Charleston (S. C.) News, a staunch Democratic sheet, joyfully accepts a condition of political equality of white men and niggers, and says, "We are glad to see from our exchanges in the various Southern States that the freedmen are at last awake to the folly of trusting the pack of shiftless and unprincipled adventurers who have heretofore been their party leaders. Colored Democratic clubs are being formed in all portions of the country, addresses from leading colored Democrats are scattered abroad, and the negro is at last finding out that his best friend is the white man with whom he has been brought up, and with whose interests he must [illegible] identified."

The record of the [illegible] of [illegible] Congress [illegible] are the [illegible] after [illegible] Forrest was [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] party.

General Ganderver, of Hamilton, Ohio, a prominent Democrat, announces that as he has not supported Vallandigham since the inauguration of the war, he will not support him now.

Direct Trade of Oregon

The San Francisco [illegible] has an article on this subject [illegible] passages which we must [illegible] to the attention of our people. It says: "We desire to have the people of our neighboring State north do their own exporting. Let them carry on their own trade themselves without the assistance of California [illegible] they have [illegible] this trade [illegible] San Francisco [illegible] with [illegible] safety [illegible] the Oregon [illegible] Glen Stanet."

The doctrine [illegible] the arraignment of Vallandigham by [illegible] brethren a good many our [illegible] party [illegible] are exposed.

The New York Day Book, August 5th, says

> The fact that such brave, earnest and faithful souls as Cobb and Toombs and Hampton stand up all over the South true [illegible] these great principles of Democracy [illegible] fathers of American liberty [illegible] and cheering sign of the times. All through the war these same patriots stood up for the great principle of the Democratic party. They are not new accessions to that organization.

In making a [illegible] the Fourteenth Amendment Hon [illegible] a blow at nigger equality. Does he intend to "go back on" [illegible] too?

One of Mr [illegible] says [illegible] are here and make a speech [illegible] ready to account to the United States [illegible] for the delinquent tax on that magnificent income.

Railroad Building through the Rocky Mountains

[From the Correspondence of Samuel Bowles with the Springfield Republican.]

The outlook is a succession of novel beauties for the 150 miles west from Cheyenne, and fortunate are those who can ride through it upon the engine, the top of the cars, or at least the platform of the rear one. In this distance the road passes up the Black Hills, the first range of Rocky Mountains, reaching at Sherman (545 miles) the highest point—and the highest point that the entire road has to mount in all its passage from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean—and then runs on through the famous Laramie Plains. It is altogether the most interesting and novel portion of the route so far opened. Rich black mountains bound the horizon north and south, a dash of snow on peak or side occasionally enlivens the view and deepens the coloring; along your pathways are fine valleys or broader plains, rich in grass and flowers; nature has fashioned it for a railroad, scattered around in valley or plain as the track approaches the summit are monuments of rock grotesquely or symmetrically arranged; here a wall as if for a bulwark, there the ruin of a cathedral or fort, again a half finished building, anon the fashion of a huge [illegible] screw steamer with paddle astern and pilot boat ahead; over all an atmosphere so pure that the eye seems to take in all space, and so dry and exhilarating that lungs fully dilate and every sense is as if bathed in [illegible] champagne. Here would seem to be the fountain of health, and among these hills and plains is surely to be many a summer resort for the invalid and pleasure seeker in the [illegible] distant future. The hills have timber, though the plains are bare of it, and the water runs pure and bright and carries trout in abundance; the plains and mountains give deer, mountain sheep, antelope and grouse. This whole pathway up and over the mountains seems to have been fashioned for its prosaic use for ages. [illegible] hills have [illegible] plains [illegible] grat to disintegrate [illegible] the gravel that is the very perfection for a railway bed [illegible] kernel, so to speak, of what was [illegible] succession of real rocky mountains—a Pelion upon Ossa, that forbade passage to wheel of wagon or car.

This 150 miles is the precise portion of the track for which the railway company has got the highest subsidy, of $48,000 a mile from the Government. The equal amount advanced from the own first mortgage bonds makes $96,000 that the company has received in cash for this piece of work. But it has not cost them over $20,000 a mile. There is not, I am sure, any 150 miles of railroad in New England that has been built so easily and cheaply. There is much more heavy and expensive work upon the road [illegible] west Albany and Springfield than upon the whole of this. There are two or three places of a few hundred feet each, of heavy rock cutting; an equal extent of high embankment, not more than two thousand feet of bridging all told—the rest is just the easiest and prettiest railroad building imaginable, and but for the distance that materials and supplies (ties, iron and food) must be hauled [illegible] the work across the plains [illegible] the [illegible] firm [illegible] valle bed. The [illegible] shovel are all the tools needed for [illegible] this whole mountain [illegible] The wonder is at the rapid progress of the road [illegible] see here how nature had kindly [illegible] the way. Further on, as the road passes down the Pacific side of the mountains into the Salt Lake Valley, there is work for powder and pickaxe, and the progress must be slower, but for that section the subsidy is less, or of the second grade of $32,000 a mile, and yet I do not suppose there is an [illegible] fifty mile division of the whole line this side of Salt Lake at least that has [illegible] to build as the Government subsidy and the first bonds have furnished cash supplies for.

General Beauregard is making himself very conspicuous in the South in electioneering for Seymour and Blair. He is the same Democrat who wrote the following letter, dated November 10, 1862:

> Hon. Wm. P. Miles, Richmond, Va.:
> Has the bill for the execution of abolition prisoners after January next been passed? Do it, and England will be stirred into action. It is high time to proclaim the black flag after that period. Let the execution be with the garrote.
> G. T. BEAUREGARD

The Democracy of New Hampshire, though faithful to Pendleton in convention, are now oblivious to his greatness. On his recent journey from Maine the Democrats [illegible] to meet him at the [illegible] the [illegible] that gave large [illegible] the Democratic State committees [illegible] to publish his letter accepting the nomination to the Vice Presidency.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature

SALEM, Sept 21.—Mr Minto presented a minority report on the contested case from Benton county. It finds that nine illegal votes were counted for Bensel and Alexander and five illegal votes for Bellinger and Carlisle. This would leave Bensel and Alexander in seats. Report laid on the table.

Chapman introduced a bill to recreate the Board of Visiting Physicians for the Insane Asylum and a stringent bill taxing soliciting agents of [illegible] outside of the State. It makes them pay a [illegible] the State Treasury of one thousand dollars.

The majority report in the Benton county contest was taken up. Minto moved to print. [illegible] Kirk, Gaffroy and others opposed it on the ground of expense and loss of time. They were anxious for immediate action. Minto, Davenport and others urged the printing, because neither contestant [illegible] members could [illegible] the [illegible] Considerable discussion [illegible] it was finally decided that the testimony presented the committee should be read. Bellinger was admitted to conduct his own case [illegible] Dr Bayley for Bensel. Wesley Shannon was called to testify. Chapman objected to [illegible] evidence and testimony and was ruled out. Much [illegible] again and several members suggested [illegible] of the whole case. Kirk [illegible] Not sustained. [illegible] made by Chapman and [illegible] withdrawn. After a long discussion the same was [illegible] by Gazley and [illegible] Such depositions as had been before the committee were then read. The question being taken on the adoption of the report it was adopted by 25 ayes to 17 nays. So Bensel is out and Bellinger in.

In the Senate there is little of interest beyond the introduction and reading of bills. Tressit introduced a preamble and joint resolution [illegible] Gen Crook [illegible] the hospitalities of the State.

[illegible]—The greatest requisites to prosper [illegible] and are good streets. That a pav [illegible] rough cobble stones is a money saving [illegible] is a mistaken idea. The papers [illegible] discussing the various k[illegible] of [illegible] in that city and the general [illegible] of [illegible] in favor of the Nicolson as the least [illegible] yet tried. The following remarks from [illegible] applicable to Portland as elsewhere [illegible] in regard to paving material is of advant[illegible] as the streets are, most of them, yet [illegible] it is always best to start right. The Times [illegible] contrasts the streets of San Francisco [illegible] of Paris, and condemns our rough [illegible] and Nicolson subject to d[illegible] [illegible] what to substitute for them. The probat[illegible] of all the people of the city are in the same fix [illegible] would be found near at hand and dem[illegible] better for paving than even the Nicolson [illegible] it would readily come into use [illegible] alluded to are we believe [illegible] by a machine into small pieces [illegible] After the compound is placed [illegible] an extraordinary heavy roller passes [illegible] the pavement hard and solid. One [illegible] this manner, the pavement is smooth and [illegible] pass over it without jar and with [illegible] and if it is lightly sprinkled no dust [illegible] It would be a valuable labor to the [illegible] ty if the [illegible] wear and tear of carriages of all kinds could be [illegible] doubt not it would be found sufficient to [illegible] interest on the construction of the best pave[illegible] world. But the time has not yet come [illegible] on the Nicolson pavement. It [illegible] to be the cheapest and best yet in use. A [illegible] slat, with, perhaps, some improvement [illegible] if down may prove it to be the [illegible]

[illegible] several years past the only source of [illegible] of this character which the citizens of [illegible] enjoyed, have been an inferior minstrel [illegible] save on rare occasions. A [illegible] the lack of a building suitable for [illegible] drama or comedy but the en[illegible] by Mr Bates, the lessee of [illegible] it up for that purpose and [illegible] has afforded the people [illegible] which no one of our own real [illegible] undertake. Mr Bates who is [illegible] and who has no superior in his [illegible] in this coast, and but few in this country [illegible] of [illegible] reflect credit [illegible] the [illegible] of notice is Mrs. Bates [illegible] the stage is always received with [illegible] into the spirit of the charac[illegible] taken that we have frequently seen [illegible] to see their [illegible] being so moved by the recital [illegible] in the Hunchback, or [illegible] Mrs Bates would rank high with [illegible] Miss Young is decidedly [illegible] and genteel manner upon the [illegible] of much merit. Messrs [illegible] do well, while Messrs. Tayer [illegible] ready in their parts and invariably [illegible] Mr J. B. Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 621 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees [illegible] creasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his [illegible] seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

The Mobile Register edited by John Forsyth one of the most virulent of rebels, speaking of the rebel yell in Tammany Hall when the selection of Seymour was announced says

How clear that note used to ring upon the air of Vicksburg of a night in years long past! And who that heard it, or heard of it, will ever forget the panic it sent to the Mexicans when Jefferson Davis's Mississippians pealed it forth at the welcome order to charge the works of Monterey? You can read it now in the Mississippi papers as they recount the incidents of their recent victory over violence and fraud; and it will make the air resonant from the Rio Grande to the Potomac at the last irresistible charge next November cheering the hearts of our Democratic friends and chilling those of our oppressors. Stand by for that yell!"

Ay, ay, Sir! The Union boys are not very much afraid With Grant they silenced that yell in 1865 and with Grant they will silence it again in 1868.—Harper's Weekly

FRENCH REPUBLICANS.—In a recent address the President of a French Grant and Colfax club, in New York city, used the following language

"Without entering at present upon an exposition of the principles of the Republican party we think it the duty as well as the interest of every French citizen to further the peace and union of the country by using his utmost endeavors to elect the only man capable of restoring and preserving the union prosperity and happiness of the country and we therefore earnestly call upon you to prove your appreciation of the liberties and advantages which this land of our adoption affords us by cordially uniting with us in our efforts to secure the election of Grant and Colfax to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the nation "

The St Louis Democrat says that Senator Henderson will enter at once upon the campaign and speak for Grant and Colfax and the whole Republican ticket

EXTINGUISHER,

PORTABLE

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement,

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years

It puts out Fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene Tar Naphtaline and combustible materials now in common use,

PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern —One A Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law His statements are not worth a denial His game is Bluff, which, if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out Don t believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H W SHIPLEY.
